Art Unit: 2627

1) The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

2) (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3) Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by SCHEDIVY (6,961,239).

SCHEDIVY discloses a multifunction digital versatile disc (DVD) expansion playback device as claimed in claim 1, comprising:

a fixing base having functions of a peripheral (Fig.1A, fixed base 101);

a portable DVD player (Fig.1A, 104);

whereby signals of peripheral are received from DVD player when DVD player and fixing base are combined together, and DVD player is also able to be taken out from fixing base (Fig.1A, the DVD player 104 and fixing base 101 can be combined and separated).

As to claim 2, SCHEDIVY shows the peripheral is an assembly of an amplitude modulator (AM), frequency modulator (FM) or car audio loudspeakers (Fig.1B, audio/video input and/or output 110).

As to claim 2, SCHEDIVY shows the power of said DVD player comes from a car electric power or an external direct current (DC) power (Fig.5, car electric power).

4) Claims 4-12 are allowed.

5) The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Applicant is reminded that in amending in response to a rejection of claims (if the rejection involves with any applicable arts), the patentable novelty must be clearly shown in view of the state of the art disclosed by the references cited and the objection made. Applicant must also show how the amendments avoid such references and objections. See 37 CFR § 1.111(c).
